Free Response Questions

Responses to these questions should be thoughtful and give insight to the applicant. This application is not a brag sheet, but rather a reflection of your experiences as a student and person.

Applicants are encouraged to answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper, but written responses below will be accepted. Note: quality is better than quantity.

1. Why are you interested in the Student Lobby Committee?
2. What experiences have shaped your development as a student? What issues do you see that affect the lives of other students?
3. How have your personal, academic, or work experiences prepared you for Student Lobby Committee?
4. What do you think will be your best contribution to the committee?
5. Describe a scenario in which you accomplished something. Or describe a personal "failure" and how you grew from it.

If selected for the Committee, I agree to (initial after each point):

Operate within the ASPCC Constitution and By-Laws	.....
Attend regular Committee meetings in CC212.	.....
Attend and participate in all Committee functions, events, etc. as much as my PCC class schedule will allow.	.....
